BOMA Hawaii's 26th Annual Golf Tournament

Chelsea Group sponsored the longest drive hole at the Hawaii Prince Golf Course

Honolulu, HI — On Friday a select group of Chelsea Group team members headed to BOMA (Building Owners and Managers Association) Hawaii's 26th Annual Golf Tournament to meet up with a collective of colleagues, friends, and community leaders. Chelsea Group was a Platinum Sponsor of the event at the Hawaii Prince Golf Course, representing hole nine of the 18-hole course.

Building Scientists Dricka Thobois and Lisa Reddinger manned the longest drive hole, keeping golfers hydrated with what was described as the “best drink on the course”, a homemade Arnold Palmer Iced Tea.

This year's tournament was country-themed, and all participants were encouraged to don their best paniolo shirts and cowboy hats. Chelsea Group Building Scientists Colton Gorman, Zack Main, and Liz Dalton represented the company on the green.
